Weekly Newsletter

Dear Parents,

This week Turquoise class have been learning completed their end of term assessment; everyone has put 100% effort into all of their tests and I couldn't be prouder. The children are all now aware of their next steps and their targets for next term.

This week the children have been proving they can interpret timetables and calculate elapsed time; next week we will be looking at tables structured in different ways and reading line graphs. In English we will be writing flashbacks using the plans the children created for at home.

Next week:

We will be watching the infant dress rehearsal of the nativity on Monday.

The choir are visiting the Christie on Tuesday afternoon.

Some of the children from the choir will be visiting Longwood Lodge on Thursday morning (parent mail to follow)

Friday is Christmas jumper day and we will be having our Christmas dinner.

PE: There will be NO swimming next week. The children will NOT need their PE kits Wednesday.

Homework

Homework should be handed in on a FRIDAY and will be given out every FRIDAY.

Spelling tests will take place on Friday mornings.

English: Write a narrative for 'No Man's Land'. Watch the Sainsbury's Christmas advert on the literacy shed website.

Write a narrative of the film in the THIRD person (you are not one of the people in the story). Describe the settings and people, add dialogue when people speak, describe the facial expressions of the soldiers and SHOW how they are feeling rather than telling the reader.

Maths: Interpret the information from the tables.

Spellings – words ending ance and ence*

If your child has been given a small home spelling book they should return this to school every day. They should work on their personal spellings for a few minutes every evening ready for their spelling lesson in the morning.

Have a lovely weekend!

Mrs McCabe
