Weekly Newsletter

Dear Parents,

What have we been doing this week?

Maths: We been consolidating reading and writing numbers to 100

English: We have been writing instructions to show Bob how to fly his rocket. The children have written detailed instructions and I think he will manage to fly the rocket.

Homework

Maths: Using times tables facts

English: Verbs

Spellings: Copy out the spellings.

Talk Homework - Silence is Golden. Luke 23: 8.12. To understand that it is sometimes best just to ignore bullies. Talk: How are you going to use your words today? Will they build someone up or knock them down? Walk on By Genesis 29 to 31. To understand that sometimes the best way to avoid conflict is just to walk away. Talk: What sort of things wind you up? Can you avoid these things? What action do you take when this happens?

Thank you

Mrs Snape and Mrs Slattery
