Yellow Class
St Anne's Royton

Spring Term 2

29/03/2019

Dear Parents,

The children looked great today for 'Crazy hair day'. Thank you for all of the chocolate donations.

This week we have been learning:

We have been reading about The Last Supper and talking about the events leading up to Jesus' death.

We have been counting in twos and I have been very impressed with the children's accuracy with this.

We have retold the story of Dogger and the children have been thinking of their own story ideas for a toy that they have lost.

Homework (handed out on a Friday and due in the following Wednesday)

This week's homework is to plan out a story about losing a toy and how they felt about it. A story planning sheet is included.

Spelling: Enclosed are the spellings for Year 1 this week.

Talk Homework: Think about the choices you make each day. Do you choose to be kind and helpful? Do you try to serve others by not always thinking about yourself? Do you care for others gladly?

PE

PE will be on a Friday each week. Please ensure your child has the correct kit in school.

Class Website

To see what we will be learning about in class this year and other information such as PE kits etc, please visit our school website <http://www.stannesroyton.oldham.sch.uk/> and navigate towards the Reception/Year 1 - Yellow Class tab. Weekly newsletters are also archived here. There is also a calendar of events on the website. If you do not have internet access or cannot use this website for any reason then please come and see me.

Next week we will be learning:

- To count in fives.
- To begin to write our own story based on losing a favourite toy.

If you have anything you need to speak to me about or any issues at all then please feel free to make an appointment with the office to come and see me any morning or night after school or give me a call at these times. Our door is always open so if you want to see the work your child has been doing then feel free to make an appointment to pop in.
